walk through Georgetow and in my wanderings I came to the Presbyterian cemetery, one of the oldest in the district. It was a bright day, and the old graveyard was a picturesque spot, and I concluded to walk through it and read the epitaphs. One in particular struck me as peculiar and pathetic. The epita h, it appeared, had been cut into the stene by the man whose bones lay beneath! I do not now recall the words, but the old tombstone was of a peculiar shape, different from any I had ever seen.

"Last spring I again found myself at the capital, and one atternoon, accompanied by a friend, we visited the old cemetery. Time had wrought great changes in the old burs, ng ground. I was told that for several reasons it had been deemed advisable to remove the bodies to other cemeterles, and the work was then in progress. The particular tombstone that had attrax ed my attention years before could not be found. It had either been carried awas, to be set up in another cemetery or bruken up by relic hunters.

CITY OF CHICAGO ASHORE. Passengers and Mail Landed by Life

London, July 1. The steamer City of Chicago went ashore in the dense fog about half a mile inside of west head of Kinsale. Tugs were dispatched to the scene. The steamer ran stery into the cliff. The life hoats were at once launched and other life saving apparatus brought into play. The sea was smooth at the time and the wind was moderate aid light. The City of Chicago carried from New York 129 cabin passengers and a cargo of general merchandise. She struck the cliff within half as hour of high water. The passengers and mails from the stranded steamer are being landed by life boats. Fowerful hivergood tugs have gone to the scene and will stude whatever assistance is necessary.

The fore compartialent of the steamer is full of water, evidently the result of her bottom coming in contact with the jagged rocks.

Mr. McPherson withdrew his request for the privilege of addressing the Senate on the silver bill and withdrew his objections to the order of the Senate. The conference report on the bill as to the circuit courts of appeal was agreed to. Twenty-eight private persion bills were passed, including journel increasing from $30 to $50 a month, the pension of soldiers of the war of 1812, now 100 years old. The presiding officer hid the silver bill before the Senate as unfinished business. He called attention to the unanimous consent given June 29 and announced that the pending question was Mr. Dolph's motion to recommit the bill.

SERIOUS INJURIES.

Man Badly Hurt by an Accident the Arctic See House.

An accident occurred in the hold of a vessel loading at the Arctic Ice Company's houses Thursday, by which a man named Andrew Vague was seriously, if not fatally injured. He was at work in the vessel and was near the batch through which the sond was near the hatch through which the ice was being lowered, when in some way two cakes slipped from the machine used and fell on him, one striking his head, the other between his shoulders.

He was picked up, being unconscious, and medical aid was summoned, and he was finally brought to South Brewer, where he has been living. The force of the terrible blow he received had fractured his skull, and he was atherwise hort.

BREWER'S VALUATION.

Results of the Assessers' Work. The assessors have finished their work and turned the results over to City Treasarer Cochran, who kindly furnished the figures to a WHIG reporter yesterday. The city valuation is as follows: On real estate of residents, $717,135; on personal estate of residents, $182,170; on real estate of non-residents, $236,085; on personal estate of non-residents, $26,985. Total valuation, $1,162,315. The amount of money to be raised by the city, including, besides the appropriations by the City Government, the State and county taxes, which are $3,608.05 and $1,605.72 respectively, and the overlaying on taxes, amounting to $156.05, is $29,358.93, and the percentage of taxation is $2.20 on $100. The assessments are the following: On real estate of residents, $15,776.97; on personal estate of residents, $4,006.42; on real estate of non-residents, $5,193.87; on personal estate of non-residents, 8598.67; on 1,203 poils, $3.00 each, $3,609.00; on 168 dogs, $179.00. Total assessments,

These figures show su increase in the valuation of the city over that of last year, of $24,355, or about 2 1-7 per cent. the number of polls has increased 96. The rate of taxation is the same, and the total amount of the assessments is $1,002.81, larger than that of 1891.
